The Young Investors Challenge (YIC) is an educational platform designed to provide a simulated investing experience. All trades and investments made within the YIC platform are purely fictional and for educational purposes only. Participants should be aware that the performance of simulated investments does not predict or guarantee future results in real-world investing.

YIC and its affiliates are not responsible for any financial losses incurred as a result of actions taken based on the educational content or simulated trades within the YIC platform. The information provided through YIC is not intended as financial advice and should not be construed as such.

We strongly recommend that participants seek the advice of a licensed financial advisor or broker before making any actual investment decisions. A professional can provide personalized advice and strategies tailored to individual financial goals and circumstances, ensuring that investments are made with a comprehensive understanding of the risks involved.

Privacy Policy: The Young Investors Challenge (YIC) is committed to protecting your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your data. By using our platform, you consent to the data practices described in this policy.

Data Collection: We collect personal data such as your name, email address, and other relevant information when you register or use our services. This data is used to provide and improve our services, communicate with you, and ensure the security of our platform.

Data Usage: Your personal data is used solely for the purposes of operating and improving the YIC platform, communicating with participants, and ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Data Retention: We retain your personal data only as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected, or as required by law.

Data Sharing: We may share your personal data with trusted third-party service providers who assist us in operating our platform, provided they adhere to strict data protection and confidentiality agreements. Your data may also be shared with legal authorities if required by law.
